DIETARY REQUIREMENTS

The Penticton Trade and Convention Centre is not a gluten-free or nut-free facility; however, we can accommodate gluten-sensitive and nut-sensitive guests by using outside suppliers and careful preparation methods. While every precaution is taken, we cannot guarantee complete allergen-free meals.

To maintain our commitment to food quality and service excellence:

All dietary requirements (attendees' names with specific allergens) must be compiled by the event organizer and sent to the catering team at least five (5) business days prior to the meal service. Saturdays, Sundays and Statutory Holiday are not considered business days.

If onsite dietary requirements are different from the organizer's final guarantees, our catering team will endeavour to co-ordinate a suitable meal based on dietary requirements. Onsite dietary requests may be subject to surcharges.

Please note, these meals are provided for health-related reasons not for preferences.
